Certain Novelty Dress Goods A Third Less than Yesterday

lected, for particular atten-COME of the very choicest of our importations of Black Dress Goods find themselves marked with a new set of Plain Black Taffetas, figures this morning. They were of the higher-priced sorts,-50, 65 and 75 cts. per yd; they are now among the lower-figured kinds.

The only reason for this is the exigency of a stock adjustment. They are goods which generally sell at sight. It may possibly be that their prices,—while only fair,—have been too high. Now that's fixed and we think they'll go as fast as their merit would seem to warrant.

With these, some of the Colored Novelties suffer also:-BLACK DRESS GOODS

At $3, was $4—Silk-and-wool Crocodile Crepon.
At $2, was $3—Mohair-and-wool Diagonal Figured Crepon.
At $2, was $3—Mohair-and-wool Ripple Crepon.

At $2, was $3-Silk-and-wool Novelty Grenadines.

At $2.50, was $3-Mexican Plaid Grenadines, with striped borders. COLORED DRESS GOODS

At $1.25, was $1.75—Silk Cluster Faille Stripe Bordered Vigoreaux. At $1.27, was $1.75—Silk Tartan Plaid Bordered Melange Poplins. At $1.25, was $1.50-Mohair-and-wool Figured Crepons.

Those Suits for Boys

ABOUT one-third of the Wash Suits we told about yesterday morning were taken during the day. The rest are ready for you, if you come to-day.

They are new suits, pretty suits and of good materials,—galateas, piques, linen and drill. The collars are new in shape and the suits have a certain snap and "get-up" to them which you never see in cheap clothing. Sizes are for ages from 3 to 12 years, and

The Prices are One-half the fair and regular figures for suits of this kind. $1 to $2.35.

Jacket Styles and Prices

THERE are nothing but high-class garments here, but there are no fancy figures in their prices. We think it as much our duty to the public to price our goods fairly, as to be fair in qualities and reliable in dealing. We don't speculate in goods,-price is a matter of computation from fixed facts. That is why you can get such garments as these at Jewelry and such prices. You would gladly pay more in many cases, if you were asked to do so.

At $10-Of black clay serge: fly-front, coat collar and back; lined with taffeta or black satin.

th $15—Of black imported Venetian cloth; fly-front, coat collar and back; strapped seams; lined throughout with black taffeta.

Second floor, Broadway.

At $20-Of black Ottoman cloth; doublebreasted fly-front; extra long; lined with black taffeta, excellent style for mourning. At $25-Of tan kersey; double-breasted reefer front; wide revers, inserted plait back; trimmed with soutache braid; lined with changeable silk.

IT isn't nec-THEY are made of Slightly Soiled Embroidered essary to deembroidered lawn Skirts Children's Dresses. scribe these dainty garments further than to say they are of French make, and rich in the say the say they are of French make, and rich in the say they are of French make, and rich in the say they are of French make, and rich in the say they are of French make, and rich in the say they are of French make and the say the say they are of French make and the say the say they are of French make and the say they are of French the lace and embroidery and exquis-iteness which characterize the better any one,—45 inches, and wide enough, iteness which characterize the better class of French garments in general. Ordinarily, these are rather high-priced little dresses for wash dresses. But these are slightly soiled,nothing to hurt them, but their prices must be adjusted. Fifteen styles, sizes for ages from 6 months to 3 years-and a chance to get the hand- | deed. The importation cost was $14; made French garments at the usual prices of the cheaper domestic goods.
